

Gateway to Play Membership Form

The Children’s Museum of Southern Minnesota is full of opportunities for discovery, development, and hands-on play. The Museum is guided by a vision to ensure that all children are able to experience the joy of learning through the power of play. In order to make that vision a reality for those that may experience barriers to participation, eligible families may apply for a Gateway to Play Membership.

To apply, please complete the following information and provide a copy of one of the documents listed below. Gateway to Play Memberships cover one year of unlimited access to the Museum during regular business hours for up to two adults and all children under 18 living in the same household, or two grandparents and all of their grandchildren.

Gateway to Play Memberships are made possible by grant and funding support provided by diverse donors. One of the most valuable ways to help sustain this support is to share Membership recipient stories with our donors. Please take a moment to tell us how you believe participating on the Children's Museum of Southern Minnesota will be of value to your family:

Bring the completed form and a copy of the eligibility document with you on your next visit to the Children's Museum of Southern Minnesota, or mail them to:

Children's Museum of Southern Minnesota – Gateway to Play
